Eligibility and Show Rules

The artist must be the originator of the work. If it is based on photos, the artist must be the originator of the subject, subject composition, drawing and media application. Original works include artist-originated or family-originated photos. Excluded are commercial photos including materials printed in any publication or that contain a copyright.

Entries may not have been worked on by another artist or instructor.

Painting Criteria:

- You may enter up to 5 paintings with no size restriction.
- Two-dimensional work only. No mechanical reproductions, photography, or computer-generated art.
- You may enter a painting that has been shown previously at another show or at B&N under a different art club as long as the painting has been completed in the last three years.
- At least 75% of the medium applied in the final layer must be graphite or colored pencil pigment.
- No saw-tooth hangers are allowed. Paintings must be supported by picture wire only, well-framed, and hung with B&N hangers only.
- No nudes will be allowed.

Criteria for Judging Artwork: From Jean Stephens:

When judging a show, I ask these questions:

1. Does the artwork convey an interesting concept? Am I seeing the subject presented in a new and compelling way?
2. Does the artwork show mastery of the chosen media? Is the artwork well executed, successfully employing principles of design and color theory to support the concept?
3. Does the frame and matting (if included) support or detract from the artwork?

Entry Fees:

Up to five entries are allowed; no size restriction. A non-refundable entry fee of $8 for one entry, $14 for two entries, $18 for three entries, and $20 for four or five entries is required.

Entry of Art Work:

Once the entry has been sent in by either email or regular mail there can be NO last minute changes. This is due to printing the program and the title cards. Once you have sent in your entry fee you are obligated to provide the art work you have committed to.

The Committee: If you have any questions regarding the show, or would like to volunteer to help with hanging, the reception, or take down, please contact Show Chair's Lesley or Donna

Reception: Opening Reception will be held Saturday, Aug 4th 4-6pm. Please invite family and friends to join us.

Sales:

All sales of paintings are to be handled personally by the artist; including the 8% sales tax. No RACPC commission is to be paid. B&N does not permit the sale price to be listed in the program or on the title card. Price lists will also not be available. Paintings must remain hung in the show for the show's duration.

Awards:

There will be a Best of Show, 5 Judge's and 5 Merit Awards. Awards will be presented at the opening reception on Saturday. There is also a special award for the best Themed painting.

RACPC does not anticipate theft or damage; however, neither Barnes and Noble, nor RACPC is responsible for damage to, or loss of art works submitted for this exhibit.

Please note that if you cannot pick up your artwork on the designated date contact a friend or the show chair to have them pick up the artwork for you. Early pickup of the artwork is not allowed.
